

RWA Update 2023

Tuesday 13th June 2023 – The Studio, Birmingham

10:00 - 10:05	Welcome and Introductions
	Charlotte Porter & Aida Hallam
10:05 - 10:35	Industry Update - New Agents in the diagnostic radiopharmaceutical pipeline
	Paul Evans, GE Healthcare
10:35 - 11:05	Environmental Agency update
	Toby Wymer, Environment Agency
11:05 - 11:25	Revised IRAT Methodology – Implications for Medical & University Users
	Anthony Hughes, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust
11:25 - 11:40	Discussion
11:40 - 12:10	Break
12:10 - 12:40	Radiological Decontamination and Decommissioning of a Life Sciences Facility
	Craig Morrisey, Aurora Health Physics Services
12:40 - 13:00	Big Fish, Little Fish, Concrete Box: Commissioning a New Radiological Waste Facility
	Juliet Porter, Sellafield Ltd

13:00- 13:20	Radionuclide contamination in Iodine-123 radiopharmaceuticals
	Helen Davison, County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust
13:20 - 13:30	Discussion
13:30 - 14:20	Lunch
14:20 - 14:40	Considerations for management of widespread Lu177 contamination: A case study of a leaking hot toilet.
	James Hubber, Imperial College Hospitals NHS Trust
14:40 - 15:00	Experience of and actions from, a cluster of externally reportable radioactive waste bag incidents across the Trust
	Julie Robinson, University College London Hospitals
15:00 - 15:20	Coffee Break
15:20 - 15:40	Disposal of a cell irradiator
	Mandy Moreton, Barts Health NHS Trust
15:40 - 16:00	How to demonstrate competence for sealed source authorisation and training
	Emma O'Shaughnessy, University Hospitals Plymouth
16:00 - 16:15	Discussion
16:15	Final Thoughts and Close