

Information Sheet: Fellowship

Is it for me?

Fellowship is a distinction grade of membership and applications for this level of membership require demonstration of an outstanding contribution of attainment in:

- research and development;
- professional practice in the workplace;
- professional practice by contributions to professional body objectives, nationally or internationally.

In addition, applicants must be able to meet the requirements for Full Membership if not already a Full Member of IPEM.

What will I get?

In addition to the benefits of Full Membership, as an IPEM Fellow you will:

- be able to use the post nominal FIPEM for professional recognition and an indicator of your professional status;
- be eligible to stand for President of IPEM;
- receive a lapel badge indicating Fellowship;
- have access to a Fellow's room at the Royal College of Radiologists in London.

How can I contribute?

As an IPEM Fellow you:

- have the opportunity to give something back to the profession through which you have risen to the top tier – a very rewarding part of being a Fellow;
- may apply for senior IPEM posts such as Vice President, Honorary Secretary, Council Director or Honorary Treasurer;
- may apply to join the many committees and panels that plan, organise and carry out work on behalf of IPEM, acquiring new skills and competencies;
- could join the editorial board of one of our international journals or our member magazine;
- may apply to join one of IPEM's Special Interest Groups (SIGs);
- can join the IPEM mentoring scheme to assist junior colleagues in their careers;
- can get involved in outreach events with schools and the public;
- can participate in a range of 'micro' volunteering opportunities that can be carried out from your desk.

What next?

If you would like to apply to IPEM for Fellowship please:

- go to www.ipem.ac.uk and click on 'Join IPEM';
- print, complete and sign the IPEM Fellowship application form;
- ask two IPEM Fellows to propose your application or provide details of supporters as an alternative (the application form will ask you to tell us who these are);
- post the application to us with the required supporting documentation.
