

Guidance and further information: Roy Ellis Patient Benefit Award

The IPEM Roy Ellis Patient Benefit Award is open to all IPEM members, both from the UK and overseas.

1. Applicants or nominators must complete the application form and submit evidence to support the application.
2. IPEM committees, including the President's Advisory Committee (PAC), Professional & Standards Council (PSC) and the Science, Technology, Engineering, Research and Innovation Council (STERIC) will also be asked to nominate potential nominees when the prizes launch each year. Council and committee members can nominate these individuals, or IPEM can contact them to self-nominate.
3. The Prize is awarded to any member for a specific piece of work or project that benefits patients. This may be directly, for example, designing a bespoke device or indirectly, for example, producing an information leaflet or providing advice on a website. One Roy Ellis Patient Benefit Award is awarded each year.
4. The name of the prize winner will be announced in the Newsletter and on the website . All unsuccessful applicants/nominators will be notified by email .
5. The prize winner will be invited to an awards ceremony to officially acknowledge receipt of the award
6. Rewards
  - £300 personal award
  - A certificate
