

Nomination call – European School for Medical Physics Experts - Scientific Committee elections 2023

Dear National Member Organisation President,

The composition of the Scientific Committee of the European School for Medical Physics Experts (ESMPE) is summarized in the table below:

Name	Office
Anna Makridou (Greece)	05/2020 - 05/2023
Jose Perez-Calatayud (Spain)	05/2020 - 05/2023
Joao Seco (Germany)	05/2020 - 05/2023
Federica Zanca (Belgium)	05/2021 - 05/2024

According to the present ESMPE Terms of Reference, three positions in the scientific committee of ESMPE will be open for election in 2023. Elected members will take the office in May 2023.

Therefore, it is our pleasure to invite your National Member Organisation to submit nominations for these positions.

The nominated person must fulfil the following criteria according to the ESMPE Terms of Reference:

- Have a minimum of 10 years' experience in a senior position in medical physics, normally as an MPE;
- Be employed in a position which entails (or has in the past entailed) appraisal and management of the performance of individuals engaged in medical physics;
- Have significant experience teaching medical physics at postgraduate level (EQF level 8);
- Have academic qualifications and experience in medical physics equivalent to at least EQF level 8
- Hold current membership of the NMO in EFOMP.

The nomination for this post must include the following documents:

- A formal letter of nomination including the name and affiliation of the nominee, from the President of the EFOMP NMO of which the nominee is a member.
- A letter from the candidate accepting his/her nomination.
- A statement by the nominee in relation to the post for which he/she is nominated demonstrating a knowledge and interest in the field and highlighting any other experience which makes them suitable for the post (up to 500 words).
- A short CV limited to 3 pages A4. The CV should cover the nominee's qualifications as specified in the section above.

Nominations should be sent to the Secretary General no later than 17rd of March, 2023. Use the emails below:

sg.efomp@gmail.com
secretary@efomp.org

Officers will collate the nominations and check their eligibility. The list of candidates for election will then be circulated and electronic votes of EFOMP delegates will be gathered in April 2023.
